

INVITATION TO RADAR WORKSHOPS

2 WORKSHOPS ON RACISM: from hate speech to hate communication How hate is produced and reflected in communication practices

Dear Madam/Sir,

We are pleased to invite you to one of our two free of charge 16-hour workshops for RADAR - Regulating AntiDiscrimination and AntiRacism (Fundamental Rights and Citizenship Programme JUST/2013/FRAC/AG/6271) <http://win.radar.communicationproject.eu/web/> organised in Helsinki 16-19 May 2016.

The training will be conducted in English, which allows the participants to also practice their English language skills regarding the topic. The workshops are organised in two different groups of maximum 15 participants each in order to guarantee interaction and learning from each other. You will receive a certificate from the RADAR project reporting number of hours and content of the training.

Groups focus on

- LEGAL PROFESSIONALS, LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS AND OTHER PROFESSIONALS WORKING WITH MIGRANTS AND IN THE FIELD OF RACISM AND XENOPHOBIA
- POTENTIAL OR ACTUAL VICTIMS OF HATE CRIME, IN PARTICULAR MIGRANTS BUT ALSO PROFESSIONALS FROM OTHER FIELDS WORKING WITH VICTIMS

The workshops will be 2 days x 8 hours (including free coffee and lunch) for each person. Participants can choose the workshop sessions 1 & 2 according to their schedules, either 16-17 May or 18-19 May.

10-15 participants / group	16 / group	Time	DATES
Workshop 1	8 h	9.00-17.00	Mon 16/05
Workshop 2	8 h	9.00-17.00	Tue 17/05
Workshop 1	8 h	9.00-17.00	Wed 18/05
Workshop 2	8 h	9.00-17.00	Thu 19/05

The venue will be Hermannin Rantatie 12, 00580 Helsinki, on the premises of Monika-Naiset liitto ry and Moniheli ry (5 min walk from Kalasatama metro station).

Working language: English

Other languages the organisers speak: Finnish, Russian, French, German (you are welcome to ask questions in these languages)

Deadline for registration: 27 April 2016

Participants will get a course certificate of attendance reporting number of hours and content of the training.

The workshops include exercises on

- language use in legal texts (laws and judgments) and its social implication
- communication practices reflecting and (re)producing racism, xenophobia, discrimination, exclusion
- diversity games and interactive exercises.

Exercises on these communicative practices will enhance your competence in recognizing dealing with hate communication, and the workshops will strengthen your skills in discussing and interacting in English regarding these issues.

In our attached brochure you will find answers to the following questions:

- Why workshop on hate communication?
- Why the RADAR workshop?
- What can you learn from the RADAR workshop?
- Who is invited to participate in the workshops?
- How to register?
- When, where and in which language does the RADAR workshop take place?
- What do the workshop organisers offer?
- How is the RADAR workshop structured?

We would be grateful if you could forward this e-mail with invitation to any persons or organizations in your city/region/country that might be interested in the topic of our workshop. We would also appreciate if you would print enclosed Invitation and put it in a visible place in your organisation.

Feel free to contact us with any questions.

Looking forward to welcoming you in our workshop!

Yours sincerely,
